Dear Doctor Wexler:

Your letter dated August 24, 1979, has been received and circulated to those persons whom we felt might have an interest in your services. At this time, we have no immediate interest in your consulting services, but we will keep your letter and summary of experience on file for future reference should we need such services.

Thank you for writing to us and lots of luck in your consulting endeavor.

Very truly yours,

RBS/sgr
